

Are You Thin? Pale?

All run down, easily tired, nervous? And do not know what to take? Then go direct to your doctor. Ask his opinion of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It contains no alcohol, no stimulation, and is a blood purifier, a nerve tonic, a strong alterative, an aid to digestion. Ask your doctor about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a strong tonic for the weak.

AUSTRALIAN SENDS A CHALLENGE TO HONOLULU

"I would like to get a race against Soldier King or the Hawaiian champion," writes Jimmie Fitzgerald, world's undefeated fifteen mile champion, to the Sporting Editor of the Star. Fitzgerald is now in Australia, and is anxious to pay a visit to Honolulu and try conclusions with the best running talent here. In a copy of the Star which he saw in Australia he read the announcement that Soldier King was to return to Honolulu in February to race Kaoo, and he is now awaiting cable to bring him hot-foot to these islands by the Moana, which is due to arrive on March 1. He remarks that he would be ready to race King and Kaoo within ten or fourteen days after arrival.

"I have a very good record," writes Fitzgerald, "having represented Canada in the last Olympic Games and never having been defeated at 15 miles. I have defeated such men as Henri St. Ives, Alfred Shrubbs, Johnny Hayes, John D. Marsh, Paul Accoase, George Bonilag, Bob Hopping (Champion of New South Wales), and also having recently won the one and five mile championships of Australia. I am also holder of the world's record for the first ten miles in a full marathon distance of 26 miles 385 yards, namely 55:26, made in San Francisco last February."

Fitzgerald suggests a three-cornered race with King and Kaoo, and also proposes a relay race against three men. He has left the matter in the hands of the Sporting Editor of the Star, whom he has commissioned to act for him. Fitzgerald is willing to race later in the year if necessary and if satisfactory arrangement were made would come to Honolulu by the steamer Makura, due here on March 28th. Fitzgerald has been running well in Australia and claims to be fit and well. The matter has been passed on to King for consideration.

AMERICANS LOSE IN COLONIES

TWO NEW WORLD'S RECORDS MADE

The Australian mail which arrived by the steamer Zealandia yesterday brought a budget of interesting sporting news, which is of interest to Honolulu as well as Australians by reason of the international aspect attaching to it.

The details of the defeat of Billy Papke, then middleweight champion of the world, by Dave Smith, of Sydney, show that Smith had Papke in trouble all the way; that the American was outclassed and that, had it not been for the foul committed by Papke, the defeat would have been more decisive. Even as it is, all the sporting writers give Smith the highest credit for his victory. Papke was unable to break through Smith's defence and as also unable to guard against the torrent of blows which Smith rained upon him. In the tenth round Papke struck Smith low with a right swing and the Australian collapsed temporarily. Papke was disqualified and the middleweight championship passed to the Australian.

In swimming circles the brilliant performance of Cecil Healy, W. Longworth, Alec Wickman and L. Solomon and the falling off of Frank Beaurepaire, who has been hailed as the world's champion by reason of his recent successes, are topics of the hour. Healy has been a sprinter for many years, but recently he decided to go in for long distance swimming. His decision evoked the dissent of his supporters, who considered that he would lose his dash, but Healy gave them such exhibitions that they were fain to declare that he had chosen well. On January 4th, using the crawl the entire distance, Healy swam 1320 yards in 18:54.5, beating W. Longworth into third place. Two days later in the final for the test races then being held he came in second to R. Hellings in the same event. Healy was conceding Hellings 29 seconds start, and Healy's time was 17:48, only 2 1-5 seconds outside the world's record for the distance then standing to the credit of C. M. Daniels. On the fourteenth inst., when the 320 yards Australasian championship was contested young Longworth, a member of the Rose Bay club, Sydney, sprang a surprise on all by winning this event in the world's record time of 17:42, which is 3 4-5 seconds inside Daniels' best. Longworth led all the way and won by thirty yards from Healy, who beat Beaurepaire for second place.

Another world's record was created during the same series of races, Alec Wickham, also a Rose Bay man, winning the 100 yard breast-stroke race in 1:17.2-5 sec. Wickham is a well-known swimmer, but has been particularly good at distances under the hundred, holding the world's record for fifty yards, viz., 24 3-5 seconds.

There was still another surprise for the swimming fans in the 100 yards championship, was won by L. Solomon, also a Sydney boy, in 58 1-5 seconds. Healy was second and Hard-Beaurepaire, who has been hailed as the world's champion by reason of his recent successes, are topics of the hour. Healy has been a sprinter for many years, but recently he decided to go in for long distance swimming.

His decision evoked the dissent of his supporters, who considered that he would lose his dash, but Healy gave them such exhibitions that they were fain to declare that he had chosen well. On January 4th, using the crawl the entire distance, Healy swam 1320 yards in 18:54.5, beating W. Longworth into third place. Two days later in the final for the test races then being held he came in second to R. Hellings in the same event. Healy all the way. The decision was given in favor of the Australian.

Less than a week later Bronson was in the ring again, this time against Arthur Douglas, of South Africa, but on this occasion there was no weight limit to be made and Bronson appeared in the ring a totally different man. He out-boxed Douglas and in the eleventh round Douglas' seconds asked the towel.

News is also contained in the files of the defeat of Bombadier Wells in London by Gunner Moir. The victory of Moir, who is well-known in Australia, over Wells comes as a huge surprise. Wells was undefeated in the eliminating contests promoted by Mr. H. D. McIntosh in London in order to select a man suitable to box Bill Lang, of Australia, and, if successful, to go up against Jack Johnson. Wells won the last three contests he engaged in in London in rather convincing style, and was hailed as the "hope of the white race." On paper it appeared certain that he would account for Moir, who had not been doing too well in the ring latterly. Moir first came to Australia with George Hackenschmidt as a wrestling partner some years ago, and while here won some good fights.

TENNIS DELAYED AGAIN.

There was no play on the Alexander courts yesterday owing to the bad weather, but another effort will be made this afternoon to play the final in the singles tournament for the championship of the Oahu College. The doubles tournament will also be commenced today if conditions are anyway favorable.
